

SELECT
POPULAR INSTRUMENTAL AND VOCAL MUSIC.

Id' LIKE TO HEAR THAT
SONG AGAIN

GET THE
IMPERIAL EDITION
of POPULAR MUSIC.
PRICE 10 CENTS

I'D LIKE TO HEAR THAT SONG AGAIN.

Moderato

Arranger by William. 按 弗格

PIANO

1. A far from home and kin-dred an a gen dar key lay. Mid
 2. The nurse spoke to the sing er. and soon the sweet re frain That stran-gers he was dy ing and soon would pass a way. And cheered the poor old dar-key rang loud and clear a gain. And to scenes of child-hood his thoughts be gan to roam. Some.

 though his heart was hap-py. his eyes with tears were bright. Abod-y start-ed sing-ing "My old Ken-tuck-y Home?" He bro-ken-ly he mur-mured "Ken-tuck-y home, good night?" He lis-tened till twas end eo then as a nurse pas-sed by. He sank back on the oil-ow and bend-ing o'er the bed. The called her to his bed-side, And mur-mur'd with a sigh! "I'd kind nurse sought to and him, But as she raised his head, She like to ask one fa-vor- 'twould drive a-way my pain, Please, knew that he was dy-ing, and as he passed a-way, She

Miss, go ask the sin-ger To sing that song a-gain saw his lips were mov-ing, And heard him soft-ly say:

Andante. REFRAIN.
I'd like to hear that song a-gain "My Old Kentucky Home!" For I was born in ole Kentuck; dar's whar I used to roam! I've heard the songs of man-y years, On land and on the foam, But I love that song of "My Old Kentucky Home, of my Old Kentucky Home, far a-way!"

